

The Story So Far (Every Family Has Secrets)

The story of the SpaceCoyotes takes place both here on Earth and on the distant planet of Anilar. It follows the adventures of JoJo, a fourteen-year-old girl who discovers through a series of mysterious events that her dream of one day becoming a SpaceCoyote pilot is being sabotaged before it has even begun.

Already adept at flying the intergalactic Star Seeker, JoJo quickly discovers the one thing holding her back from becoming the youngest Academy entrant ever ... the past.

Forty years ago, her grandfather led a first, ill-fated mission to what was to become the most feared planet in the galaxy, the Blue Planet (earth). Only one man returned home safely. What happened on that mission still remains a closely guarded secret.

Now, that past is threatening JoJo's future.

Only by untangling the secret and discovering the truth of her families history, will she stand a chance of being accepted. Unfortunately for her, the answers lie not on Anilar, but on the Blue Planet itself.

Dare she break all the rules and fly there? Dare she risk everything?

Of course she DARE.

So join us as we attempt to delve a little deeper into the world of the SpaceCoyotes and the Secret of the Blue Planet...
